

Beta Alpha Psi Annual Meeting

Thursday, July 25, 2024, 3:30 – 4:45 pm

Richard Chambers, CRMA, CFE, CGAP, CIA, QIAL

Delivery Method: Group Live

Title: Lessons Learned on the Audit Trail

Richard Chambers joined a bank internal audit department as a 21 year old freshly minted accounting graduate. Thus began a remarkable journey spanning five decades that took him to 6 continents, the pinnacles of government auditing, the Big 4, the corner office of the profession's global association and ultimately an extraordinary tech startup company. Inspired by his award-winning book of the same name, this session will take the audience on a fascinating voyage around the world including behind the scenes experiences at the Pentagon, congressional hearings, corporate boardrooms, network news studios, and even the White House. But most importantly, Richard will share the enduring lessons he learned on his astonishing audit trail that will inform and inspire every accounting graduate regardless of the path they choose.

Learning Objectives:

- Understand modern internal auditing and how it has evolved
- Comprehending career options available for accounting graduates
- Explore critical career milestones and how to seize opportunities
- Understanding the importance of “writing your own story” in career planning
